

The Archive of History and Art-The War Archive is delighted to invite you in the presentation

Greek irregular troops during the Revolution of 1821: The organisation and tactics of the Greek forces

Saturday 19 February 2022 at 19.00
Presented by Andreas Kastanis

Zoom: see details in red above

The topic covers the combat tactics of the Greek revolutionary forces compared to the then accepted military tactics in Europe

The presenter Andrea Kastanis holds a Ph.D from the University of Ionannina, a M.A on International Relations-Strategy from the University of Indianapolis and is a graduate of the Greek Military Academy and the Advanced School of War. He is professor of History at the Greek Military Academy and has taught in various university institutions in Greece. He has participated in the editions of various publications of the Ministry of Defence as well as being the author of numerous articles and publications on topics related to defence and strategy.

