

The Archive of History and Art-The War Archive is delighted to present on Feb 24 at 19.30 via Zoom Vasos Vomvas on :
The art of memory:Events and encounters of a personal journey as a micro snapshot of Greece's recent history taking as a cause and starting point the island of Mytilini.
The presentation will be introduced by the writer and critic
Anthoula Daniil

Vasos Vomvas, is an original exponent of the use of personal memory as a tool of exploring not only history but also a form of saving the trajectory of a society and a group of people who shared experiences and events. He has authored several books and has edited the poetic and other works of his father. For details of the Zoom see the section above in red. The presentation will be in Greek.