

The Archive of History and Art-the War Archive is delighted to invite you to a presentation by J.KymioniS on the topic of

The conventions of Sevres and Lausanne , their present importance and the challenges facing them

Saturday 30 March 2024 at 7.30 pm

The presenter J.Kymionis, is a lawyer expert on the area of international conventions and agreement and negotiations and has written extensively on the subject of Greek-Turkish relations and especially on the Sevres and Lausanne treaties following the Greco-Turkish war of 1922.

These treaties continue to influence the relations between the two countries and have even triggered serious confrontations.